

Zero tolerance to bribery and corruption

As a professional independent regulatory body, ENTRUST is committed to ensuring that it delivers its operations in an open, transparent and honest way.

To achieve this objective, ENTRUST expects its employees and all persons who act on its behalf to demonstrate honesty, integrity and fairness in all aspects of their business dealings and exercise appropriate standards of professionalism and ethical conduct in all of their dealings with the Company and our stakeholders. We also expect that our stakeholders will adopt these same standards in working with ENTRUST.

ENTRUST will therefore not tolerate any acts of bribery, or corruption in any form and has a 'zero tolerance' approach to any of these activities. In line with the requirements of the Bribery Act 2010, ENTRUST, our employees or persons acting on our behalf will never seek, accept, offer a bribe, gift, or other improper payment as a reward for improper performance of a relevant function, or activity.

At all times, individuals acting within the Landfill Communities Fund (LCF) sector should consider how their actions would be viewed if they were subject to independent scrutiny and review. If anyone is in any doubt about any issues, which relate to the Bribery Act 2010, they should contact ENTRUST's Finance Manager on (01926) 488 320, or if they are concerned by the actions of any others related to this matter, they can if they prefer refer this matter to us, using our confidential Whistleblowing helpline on (01926) 488 337.
